MainStream Global Solutions Sponsors 24th Annual Georgia Invitational Golf Tournament

MainStream Named Flag Sponsor of Event to Benefit Warner Robins' Museum of Aviation

Bethesda, MD (September 19, 2013) – MainStream Global Solutions, LLC (“MainStream GS”), a leading management consulting firm focused on increasing performance and sustaining gains for public and commercial sector organizations, was named Flag Sponsor of the 24th Annual Georgia Invitational Golf Tournament. To date, the tournaments have raised over $5 million to help build and develop the second largest aviation museum in the U.S. Air Force. For this year’s event, former U.S. Senator Sam Nunn will again serve as Honorary National Chairman and U.S. Senator Saxby Chambliss will serve as the Honorary Chairman. Honorary Co-Chairmen will be Senator Johnny Isakson and United States Congressman Austin Scott and Tournament Chairman Eddie Wiggins.

More than 320 golfers will participate in the event at the Pine Oaks Golf Course on Robins Air Force Base on September 19 and 20. The two-day tournament is the largest golf outing in Middle Georgia and is made up of three separate rounds. Foursomes will compete in a “scramble” handicapped format. On Thursday night, the traditional “Plantation Supper” will be held and an awards dinner will be at Pine Oaks Golf Club on Friday evening.

“MainStream remains committed to participating in the Georgia Invitational Golf Tournament, which significantly benefits one of the best aviation Museums in America. With this continued support, we remember and honor the men and women of our armed forces Aviation Museum and provide education to the next generation of youth who will lead this great country if ours,” comments John Maher, Vice President, Programs of MainStream GS.
