MainStream Establishes a Strategic HealthCare Solutions Partnership with OneCare

MainStream teams with OneCare to provide customers with a patient engagement platform that focuses on innovative chronic care management and wellness program services

BETHESDA, MD (July 15, 2013) – MainStream Global Solutions, LLC (“MainStream”), a global management consulting firm, announced a strategic partnership with OneCare, LLC. OneCare is a revolutionary patient care engagement platform that uses a private and secure HIPAA Compliant, social network via web and mobile technologies to connect patients and their personal health information with their doctors, other professional / clinical caregivers, and with a family care team. As an OneCare Authorized Partner, MainStream will be providing the OneCare Patient Center platform and healthcare integration consulting services to OneCare and MainStream customers across the public sector and to commercial enterprises. MainStream’s management consultants will have direct access to the unique OneCare system and the ability to integrate OneCare into their organization’s Acute Care, Managed Care, Primary Care, Wellness, and Prevention programs.

“MainStream recognizes the impact chronic disease is having on our society and global economy. OneCare’s technology platform is comprehensive and cutting edge, yet simple to use and easy to deploy. OneCare can help drive healthcare costs down while improving health outcomes and general wellness. MainStream is excited about the positive impact that our relationship with OneCare can bring to the long term health of our customers around the world,” said MainStream GS President, Alan J. Horowitz.

“We are extremely pleased to be working closely with MainStream. In addition to being a great OneCare partner and provider of our platform, MainStream’s management consulting services are of great interest to OneCare as a resource to offer to our customer organizations. MainStream’s ability to help organizations increase their performance and sustain gains is of great value. OneCare sees MainStream as an important strategic relationship,” said Gary Austin, President and CEO of OneCare.
