MainStream Awarded a Six Month Ordering Extension on $90 Million U.S. Air Force-Wide ID/IQ Contract Continuous Process Improvement Program ID/IQ Contract Ordering Period Extended to August 26, 2012; Services Can Be Delivered Through February 26, 2013

Bethesda, MD (April 5, 2012) - MainStream GS, LLC, a leading veteran-owned small business management consulting firm focused on increasing performance and sustaining gains for public and commercial sector organizations, was granted a six month ordering period extension on its five-year contract for continuous process improvement program (CPIP) services (Contract #: FA8224-07-D-0001; suggest we include link to our contracts page on our web site here with more info on the contract). With the contract's ordering period originally set to end on February 26th of 2012, the ordering period is now active until August 26th of 2012. The contract's period of performance remains the same, with services being performed until February 26th of 2013. Under the terms of the contract, MainStream GS is responsible for executing Continuous Process Improvement (CPI) projects, strategic planning, strategy alignment and deployment and Program Improvement initiatives throughout the U.S. Air Force and Joint Commands with Air Force elements in order to consolidate and streamline projects, which, to date, have contributed significantly to cost savings.

"The United States Air Force is a valued and strategic customer and this extension provides current and new Air Force customers continuity of services at a very critical time. The Air Force is under enormous pressure to drive efficiencies with no degradation to their mission effectiveness. That is at the heart of what our contract and corporate capabilities bring to the fight. We look forward to continuing to support the Air Force around the globe," said Alan Horowitz, President.

In February of 2007, MainStream, in response to a competitive small business bid for CPI services, was awarded a single award small business five-year $90 million contract to support the Air Force in its CPI mission. MainStream has worked across six Major Commands in the Air Force to provide provides training, guidance, coaching, project facilitation and mentoring to Air Force leadership and their organizations, aligning their CPI efforts to Commanders Intent to deliver results that drive efficiencies while sustaining mission effectiveness...
